AN ACT

For the relief of James Comeau.

October 15, 1962
[H. R. 12090]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to James Comeau, of Haverhill, Massachusetts, the sum of $221.94. Such sum represents reimbursement to the said James Comeau for paying out of his own funds judgments rendered against him, and costs, in the United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, as the result of an accident occurring when said James Comeau was operating a Government motor vehicle in the course of his duties as an employee of the United States Post Office Department: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

James Comeau.
